THE BROOK THEATRE

AT BOLINGBROOK HIGH SCHOOL

Welcome to The Brook Theatre!

We are excited to present this years fall play "Othello"!

Love, deception, jealousy, murder; while these may sound like story lines from a Hollywood soap opera, they represent some of the big ideas from Shakespeare's classic play, Othello. In this play, Shakespeare tells the story of Othello, a Moorish general in the Venetian army. Othello is married to Desdemona, the daughter of a Senator named Brabantio. We learn that Othello has two major enemies who plot to destroy him: Roderigo, who is also in love with Desdemona, and Iago, Othello's employee, who is upset that another man named Cassio has been promoted over him. Over the course of the play, Iago comes up with a scheme to trick Othello in order to exact his revenge upon him.

We invite you to visit our newly created website at www.TheBrookTheatre.org for information on upcoming shows, calendar of events, photos, news, thespian info, spirit wear, and much much more!

Thank you for coming and ENJOY THE SHOW!

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Shakespeare. The Bard.

My earliest exposure was my mom endlessly praising the Franco Zeffirelli 1968 film version of Romeo & Juliet, quoting the infamous balcony scene. What I remember most is the light in her eyes and the smile on her face. I didn't really know what she was talking about, but she really loved it. Later, during my freshman year in high school, I was mesmerized when my English teacher, Mr. Rodgers, taught us what "bite my thumb" meant in context. His ability to make Shakespeare relatable is one of the reasons I became an actor and an English teacher. I spent summers in Batavia with the Midsummer Theatre Troupe with the language of A Midsummer Night's Dream, Twelfth Night, and Much Ado About Nothing. I auditioned for college theatre programs with the words of Hamlet, studied King Henry in Verse Drama, and dabbled in the Scottish play professionally.

In selecting this year's production, I felt it was appropriate to push them further than we had in recent years. I have taught Othello since when I first started teaching (my British Literature days) and was always struck by how much students latched onto its tale of deceit, betrayal, and jealousy.

As our first Shakespearean production in a long time, I admit my nerves. Will the students enjoy it? Will our audience? There's obviously academic benefit to putting on one of these works, but I've wanted to tap into the enjoyment of Shakespeare, the love of the language, and the thrill of the journey. Like a rite of passage. I admit that I've wanted students to fall in love with these plays in the same way I did in my formative years. To all of our students, I hope you've found some place in your heart for this story.

Iago says, "we have reason to cool our raging motions, our carnal stings, our unbitted lusts...." Othello is about the consequences when we let reason fall to the wayside. What happens when we act on emotion, gut instinct, and impulse? A lesson not solely for our students, but for all of us.

I've watched our students excel this year, both on and off the stage. Our crews are working harder and smarter, and our cast is more dedicated and professional. That's the goal of all of us in the theatre program: to grow artists.

On top of every "thank you" that is peppered throughout this program, I want to particularly thank the director team. We keep getting better and better with each passing year. I also want to thank my mother and everyone who ever instilled me with a love of language. Most importantly, I want to thank my wife, Jen. You are such an amazing partner-in-crime, and I really appreciate your patience and compassion in these fall months. I couldn't do this without you.

WHO'S WHO

Grace Avery (Lodovico). Grace is so excited to be playing the role of Lodovico in her first high school fall play production. You may have seen Grace on The Brook Theatre stage recently in the Musical Theatre Revue, the student directed Long Story Short production, this year's first A-Wing It Improv Show or performing in the Marching Raiders as a member of the color guard. Grace would like to thank her parents for being so supportive of her, as well as Mr. Morrison and Mr. Wayne for giving her this opportunity.

Spencer Avery (Iago). Prior to playing Iago, Spencer appeared as Dr. Bennett in the 2018 IHSTF All-State production of Big Fish and reprised that role at Nationals this past June. Spencer also appeared in the 2017 IHSTF All-State production of Sweeney Todd as Aldolfo Pirelli. Spencer's Bolingbrook High School theatre productions include; Prince Eric / The Little Mermaid, Orcus / She Kills Monsters, Curtis Jackson / Sister Act, Donkey / Shrek, the Musical, Karl Linder / Clybourne Park and Anon / Anon(ymous). Spencer played J. Pierreponte Finch / How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, Corny Collins / Hairspray, Robertson Ay / Mary Poppins and a guard in Spamalot; all at Bolingbrook's Theatre on the Hill. Spencer was honored to be a two-time nominee for the Illinois High School Musical Theatre Awards and earned his place in the IHSA All-State Honors Choir in both 2017 and 2018.

Amiri Bradford (Sound Tech). My name is Amiri and I like sound.

and this will be his first play production since his time at Jane Addams Middle School. He is very excited to be a part of Othello because of all the friends he is making and how much fun it is to be on stage. Outside of Othello, Kyle is an Honor Role student who was also on the BHS Baseball team. He would like to thank Mr. Morrison and Mr. Wayne for giving him this opportunity.

Dalton Carr (Construction Project Lead). Dalton is a dedicated member of tech since he missed the bus and his sister forced him to try it. He has also done shows at the high school such as Clybourne Park, Sister Act, She Kills Monsters, and The Little Mermaid. : ^)

Xavier Chapman (Props Master). I am the props god(!) and I shall bestow weapons and other kinds of things to all who need it. I have a guardian dragon that looks like a cow and his name is Mackrel (He needs love and attention!). I almost drowned in clothes in the props loft. I love coffee. Thanks for coming to my TED talk.

Kyara Chisolm (Emilia). Hi!! My name is Kyara Chisolm and I am a sophomore at Bolingbrook High School. This is my second play at The Brook Theatre. Previously I was in "She Kills Monsters" (Evil Gabbi) and last spring I had the pleasure of being Flotsam in "The Little Mermaid". I am also in Sunrise Singers, Madrigals, I am A-Wing It! co-captain with the fabulous Madalyn Quitter, and I am the Underclassman Ambassador for Thespian Troupe #3413. We've worked so hard on this play and I really hope you enjoy the show!!!

Jacob Chow (Rigging Chief). Jacob is excited to be a part of his third fall play, not only helping lead the construction of the set, but also leading the fly line during the show.

Luke Chow (Master Carpenter). Luke is trying to be mature this time. He decided he didn't want to do a long bio, so he isn't.

Amanda Crisp (Duke of Venice / Ensemble). Wowie. Junior year has been fantastic so far and Amanda would like to give the credit to all of her friends in the A-wing and her directors. You may recognize Amanda from "She Kills Monsters" as Kaliopé or in the musicals "The Little Mermaid" as ensemble and "Sister Act" as a nun. With every play and musical, Amanda's love for theater grows and she can't believe how much of herself she was missing before she came to theater. Thanks again to the theater department for being so wonderful! Enjoy!

Sophia Dimond (Desdemona). Sophia has had such an amazing time working with these incredible people in her first production here at BHS. She has also been in many productions at Brooks Middle School such as "Wingin' It" and "Little Women" as Beth March. As well as this she was in the VVSD Stages "The Little Mermaid Jr." She is very excited for you to see the show and hopes you will enjoy our production of William Shakespeare's "The Tragedy of Othello, The Moor of Venice."

Morgan Dudaryk (Lead Sound Designer). Morgan is so happy to be a part of Othello! This is her third production as Lead Sound Designer, the fourteenth overall production she has been a part of, and also the fourteenth mental breakdown she's had. In the future, you will find Morgan crying in the corner and attempting to balance tech, academics, social life, health, and some other things she's most likely forgotten. She would like to thank her friends and family for supporting her and Mrs. Speciale for letting her turn that essay in late.

Kailey Dwyer (Ensemble). Kailey is so excited to be a part of her first play at BHS. Kailey has also been in many productions at Brooks Middle School such as 'No Signs of Intelligent Life', 'Wingin' It' and 'Little Women' as Jo March. Kailey has also been a part of Kids on Broadway, and the VVSD Stages production of The Little Mermaid Jr. Along with Othello, you can see Kailey perform as a part of this year's Improv team.

Desiree Evans (Prop crew chief). Hello! I am the (Prop)phet to the Prop god. (See Xavier's bio for clarification). I am project lead and one of the overseers of the many, many, many props within our wonderful prop collection, including Mackerel, our cow- looking dragon, who just so happens to also be our guard. As project lead of props I help the Prop god or take over when the Prop god is unavailable. WeEEeellLLPP.. that's all folks.

Nick Filano (Student Technical Director). Nick Filano is super excited to be in the process of producing Othello. After only joining last year, Nick has been determined to participate in everything the BHS tech department has to offer, and quickly climbed the ranks to become the Student Technical Director. Nick loves everything theater related and hopes that you enjoy all the time and hard work that tech crew and the actors have invested to create such an amazing show.

Sarah Fino (Props). Hi, I'm Sarah, this is my first year in theater and I help out with props for the show.

Carl Flood (Co-Student Technical Director - Gatekeeper). Carl is proud and excited to be a part of Bolingbrook High School's production of Othello. This is Carl's third show at BHS and his first time Student Technical Directing.

Lalah Greenberg (Lighting Crew). God said "Let there be light!", so he made a lighting techie.

Isabel Jaquez (Paint Crew Chief). Hi! I'm Izzy, this is my third production here at BHS. I am a sophomore this year. My favorite color is bright blue and I love potatoes. I love theater it has given me a place to be my weird, silly self, with other weird silly people. I have met all my really good friends through theater here at BHS, and I am so excited to now be in a leadership position in tech. I can't wait to see where I go from here.

Brittany Johnson (Stage Manager). This will mark Brittany's fifth show at BHS and her second show as a Stage Manager. In past shows she has worked on props and was Paint Crew Chief at one point. She doesn't know what future shows have in store for her but she hopes it's good.

Jalen Johnson (Ensemble). Your favorite...Out standing....Superstar...Use code " Jalen " for 25% off your purchase :-D... JK

George Karafotias (Light Designer). Working with the BHS Theatre Department is an experience I will never forget. Being able to design the lights with the help of all of the light crew has been awesome! I can't wait until until Jekyll & Hyde next year! I hope everyone I know continues in theatre because it has been an amazing spending time and working with everyone, especially with one of the best light crews ever! Trevor Lamb (Tech). Trevor is excited to be apart of his second show, Othello. He was apart of the pit in last years musical, The Little Mermaid, playing the oboe and English horn. Trevor this year is apart of the sound crew. This is Trevor's first show in tech and is excited for many more shows to come.

Emily McKeever (ASM). Emily is very excited for her third production at Bolingbrook High School, Othello. She worked as a part of sound crew for the 2017 play, She Kills Monsters, and was ASM for both the 2018 musical, The Little Mermaid, and for the current production. She and the rest of the cast and crew hope you enjoy the show!

Kelli Medina (Bianca). Kelli Medina is so happy to be playing Bianca in Othello! This is her first fall play, but she has performed as a pit member for the 2018 spring musical The Little Mermaid, and hopes to continue contributing to theatre performances more in the future!

Emma Morales (Tech). This is her first production, however she has admired theatre since she was in elementary school (her favorite musical is The Great Comet). She's looking forward to working on more productions in the near future!

Eillen Nigos (Tech Crew - Props). Eillen Nigos is a coffee, clothes loving freshman at BHS. She likes making things look appealing to the eye, because why do anything if it's not going to look nice? Her organizational skills has helped her as costume crew in middle school drama and brought her here today. Enjoy the show!

Neil Nigos (Rigging Project Lead/Run Crew). Kneel Migos a.k.a. Charon has been doing tech for theater since last year and will gladly take the title of the greatest project lead since the Chows decided to become chiefs. He loves this community like a family. This is his junior year at high school and it's hittin hard frfr, so some love and food is appreciated, hmu tho let's hang out y'know, let's get this bread - <https://tinyurl.com/LetsGetThisBread>

Natalia Parker (Ensemble). I'm very excited to be in my first fall play! It's my first time being in a play and I could never ask for a better crew, cast, or directors. I hope you all have an amazing time watching this play as I did rehearsing it!

Abigaile Phanor (ASM & Lights). We should do a murder mystery.

She would like to thank the directors, as well as all of the other cast members for making this such an amazing experience.

Marissa Temple (Clown and Ensemble). Marissa was involved in her theater program at her middle school, but just recently got back into theater in her high school career.
